What reason did Luke give for Judas’s betrayal of Jesus?

Trivia Answer for April

The reasons are the same today as during that time, greed and Satan! Watch, Pray and read Luke 22

Trivia Question for May

What reference to Jesus appeared three times in the first sentence of the book of John?

Prayer in the Name of Christ

And whatsoever ye shall ask in My Name, that will I do that the Father may be glorified in the Son."

John 14:13

How wonderful is the link between our prayers and Christ's glorifying the Father in heaven! Much prayer on earth brings Him much glory in heaven. What an incentive to pray much, to intercede incessantly! Our prayer is indispensable to the glorifying of the Father.

During His last night on earth, Christ's desire was so deep for His disciples to learn to believe in the power of His Name, and to take hold of His promise of a sure and abundant answer, that we find the promise repeated seven times. He knew how slow men are to believe in the wonderful promise of answer to prayer in His name.

He desires to rouse a large and confident faith, to free our prayers from every shadow of doubt, and to teach us to look upon intercession as the most certain and most blessed way of bringing glory to God, joy to our own souls, and blessing to the perishing world around us.

If the thought comes to us that such prayer is not easy to attain, we only need to remember what Christ told His disciples. It was when the Holy Spirit came that they would have power to pray in power. In order to draw us on to yield ourselves fully to the control of the blessed Spirit, He holds out to us the precious promise: "Ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full" (John 16:24). As we believe in the power of the Spirit working in us in full measure, intercession will become to us the joy and the strength of all our service.

When Paul wrote, "And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus" (Colossians 3:17), he reminded us how, in daily life, everything is to bear the signature of the name of Jesus. As we learn to do this, we will have the confidence to say to the Father, "As we live in Your name before men, we come to You with the full confidence that our prayers in Your name will be answered." Our lives lived among men are to be lived in communion with God. When the name of Jesus rules everything in our lives, it will give power to our prayers, too.

We would like to say Happy Mother's Day.

INSPIRING MOMENTS

Is Your GPS On?

“Pray without ceasing.”
1 Thessalonians 5:17 KJV

Praying is probably the most important part of preparing to do something, yet so many people today ignore or forget this vital part of the process. I suggest you don't do anything without first praying and asking God to get involved and make it work out right. Jesus said, “Apart from Me you can do nothing,” and I believe Him (see John 15:5).

Prayer is like the GPS system in a car. When you turn it on and tell it where you're going, it shows you the path you need to take to get there. The Bible says that we should acknowledge God in all our ways and He will direct our steps and make them sure (see Proverbs 3:6) Prayer gives us God's GPS—Guidance, Provision, and Strength.

When Jesus ascended into heaven and sat down at the right hand of the Father, He sent the Holy Spirit to be our Helper in life. He is always ready to get involved, but we must ask for His help. If you don't turn on your GPS, it won't tell you when you're making wrong turns. It won't take the wheel away from you and keep you from getting lost. In the same way, the Holy Spirit offers world-renowned supernatural service, but you have to ask Him for it.

God will enable you to do things that will frequently surprise you if you take Him as your partner in life. But you must start with prayer.

Trust in Him—start your day by turning on your GPS through prayer. You'll find God's Guidance, Protection, and Strength, which will help you trust him and experience His presence all throughout the day!

Floridians Sign Petitions to Overturn the States Felon Disenfranchisement Law

Across the United States 6.1 million ex-felons cannot vote. More than a quarter of them reside in Florida. Florida disenfranchise more of its citizens than Alabama, North and South Carolina, Mississippi, Georgia, Louisiana and Tennessee combined.

Felon disenfranchisement was part of Florida's constitution adopted in 1868 that aimed to limit black voting rights. It has a discriminatory effect on minority citizens who are more likely to be jailed in Florida and the nation. Florida is one of four states that bar ex-felons from voting along with Iowa, Kentucky and Virginia.

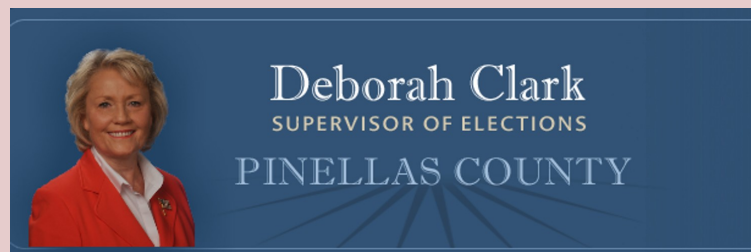

This constitutional amendment will automatically restore the right to vote for people with prior felony convictions, except murder of felony sex offenses, upon completion of their sentences.

This General Election is critically important as it not only includes Amendment 4, but political, local, state and national issues. You are encouraged to study all candidates positions and familiarize yourself with the Amendments and vote.

Commission on Stewardship and Finance

Principles for Wise Financial Stewardship

If you learn to live by these four important principles, you'll see your financial borders begin to expand:

1. Work for It—if not likely that God is going to drop a huge financial windfall in your lap while you're sitting on the couch watching TV. Neither are you going to become financially successful if you live carelessly and pray for God to "clean up" your financial mistakes. Being financially successful takes hard work! A lot of people want today what it took their parents years to get. God calls us to live with excellence and integrity. That means that we give a good day's work for a good day's pay, and that we try as best we can to live within our means. Work is good for us. It gives us a sense of purpose and accomplishment, and is a form of service to others. If we're obedient and work with integrity, God will bless our work. (Deuteronomy 28.8)
2. Give Generously—the best way to be happy in this life is to be a blessing to other people. That's true of how spend our time and certainly true of how we spend our money. It's something I've experienced over and over: the more you give away, the more you'll be blessed. When God asks us to give our money away in the form of tithing or other contributions, He's not trying to take something away from us. He's simply giving us the opportunity to be a part of what He's doing to meet the needs of others. And that's a part of His purpose and the calling on our lives. Whatever you give up now will come back to you one-hundred-fold in this lifetime (see Mark 10:29-30).
3. Save—it's extremely important that we be prepared for unexpected expenses, like flat tires, house repairs or medical bills. When we have savings set aside for these emergencies, it will help us avoid going into debt. If you're already giving regularly, let me encourage you to set aside an additional amount each paycheck as a personal savings. Start with whatever you can afford and save more as you're able.
4. Spend—while saving is important, God doesn't call us to be hoarders. Know what you have. Make sure that you're balancing your checkbook and have a budget prepared so that you know what is coming in and what's going out. Just make sure that when you're spending, you're following a few, simple guidelines:
  - A. Don't Buy what You Don't Need—if you obviously don't need something and it's not in your budget to afford it, than be bold enough not to buy it.
  - B. Don't Buy with What You Don't Have—a general rule for using credit cards is to only spend what you can pay off at the end of the month. The interest on consumer debt can quickly get out of control.
  - C. Pay Debts Off Immediately—living debt-free will give you the flexibility to live more generously and more abundantly. If you're dealing with debt now, make a plan to get out. Start with the smallest debt and work your way to the biggest ones.
  - D. Invest—this is wise spending. It's setting aside money so that it will bring a return later on. Sound investments in property, mutual funds and the like can allow your money to work for you instead of the other way around.
