Trivia Question for November 2024

In Luke’s account of the Sermon on the Mount to who does Jesus say “God is kind”?

Trivia Question for December 2024

How many years were the Israelites in bondage in Egypt?

Facing Rejection

“He was despised and rejected by men, a man of sorrows, and familiar with suffering. Like one from whom men hide their faces He was despised, and we esteemed Him not.”
Isaiah 53:3

Throughout His earthly life, Jesus was constantly exposed to personal criticism and rejection. At the beginning of His ministry, His own townsfolk at Nazareth tried to hurl Him down from the brow of the hill (Luke 4:29 “They got up, drove Him out of the town, and took Him to the brow of the hill on which the town was built, in order to throw Him down the cliff.”). The religious and political leaders constantly argued with Him and conspired to kill Him. At length He was arrested and brought to trial before Pilate and Herod. Even though He was guiltless of the accusations, He was denounced as an enemy of God and man, and not worthy to live.

How did He respond to criticism and rejection?

- ♥ First, with steadfastness. He did not tone down His message, nor did He stop doing what He knew was right.
- ♥ Second, with strength. Ahead of Him was the Cross - but He did not lose courage or shrink from what He knew was God’s will.
- ♥ Third, with submission. When Herod prodded Him to defend Himself, “He answered with nothing” (Luke 23:9). Only one thing mattered: Fulfilling God’s purpose for His life.

How will we meet criticism?

Rev. Clarence A. and Sister Andrea P. Williams

Inspirational Moment

Santa's Christmas Wish

It's Christmas Eve once again,
And the world awaits Santa's return,
But as children sleep with happy faces,
Santa's face is full of concern.

For he know that many believe in him,
Even though they see him not;
Yet they don't believe in the unseen God,
Nor the Son that He begot.

They accept the many gifts from Santa,
As an expression of his love;
But they won't accept The Greatest Gift,
From the loving God above.

The gift of eternal salvation,
Was offered on Christmas Day -
Through the birth of Baby Jesus,
Who is still rejected today!

"How sad it is," though Santa,
As he climbed into his sleigh
And with tears staining his cheeks,
Santa bowed his head to pray.

"Lord Jesus, 'tis not for my glory,
That I return each Christmas Eve.
But to show men, women, and children,
That they don't need to see to believe.

And if they can accept my gifts,
Even though they're undeserving—
I pray they'll learn to accept Your Gift,
Through a clearer understanding.

And Lord, if I could have a Christmas wish,
I would ask for it to be -
That on each and every Christmas Eve,
The world would look for Thee, not me!"

December Birthstones

Blue Zircon • Tanzanite • Turquoise

Since the Middle Ages, Blue Zircon has been believed to aid in spiritual growth and to promote wisdom. Those who wear blue zircon, it is said, will find beauty and peace.

As a relatively new gemstone, Tanzanite does not have any mythical or mysterious powers associated with it. But what it lacks in history, it compensates with beauty in its deep blue and purple tones.

Turquoise attracts money, success and love. Its powers include protection, healing, courage, friendship, and luck. It relaxes the mind, and eases mental tension.

NARCISSUS

DECEMBER'S BIRTH FLOWER

In Florology, the narcissus embodies the idea that you want your beloved to stay just the way they are.

HEALTH & WELLNESS

Awareness: Type 2 Diabetes in Children (part 2)

Type 2 diabetes can affect nearly every organ in your child's body, including the blood vessels, nerves, eyes, and kidneys. The long-term complications of type 2 diabetes develop gradually over many years. Eventually, diabetes complications may be severe or even life-threatening.

Complications of type 2 diabetes are related to high blood sugar and include:

- ◆ High cholesterol
- ◆ Heart and blood vessel disease
- ◆ Stroke
- ◆ Nerve damage
- ◆ Kidney disease
- ◆ Eye disease, including blindness

Prevention

Healthy lifestyle choices can help prevent type 2 diabetes in children. Encourage your child to:

- ◆ Eat Healthy Foods. Offer your child foods low in fat and calories. Focus on fruits, vegetables, and whole grains. Strive for variety to prevent boredom.
- ◆ Get More Physical Activity. Encourage your child to become active. Sign up your child for a sports team or dance lessons.
- ◆ Better yet, make it a family affair. The lifestyle choices that help prevent type 2 diabetes in children can do the same for adults.

Treatment

Treatment for type 2 diabetes includes:

- ◆ Taking insulin
- ◆ Monitoring blood sugar
- ◆ Eating healthy foods
- ◆ Exercising regularly

You'll work closely with your child's diabetes treatment team—health care provider—to keep your child's blood sugar level as close to normal as possible. Your child healthcare provider will let you know your child's blood sugar target range. This range may change as your child grows and changes.

The Prudent Spender

At the highest level, we do two things with money: earn it, and spend it. Spending in this sense includes everything we do with money - including lifestyle spending, giving, saving (which is really future spending), and debt retirement (past spending). In this article, we will focus on lifestyle spending. We'll look at what God's Word has to say about how we use the resources He provides, and we'll learn some practices and tools to apply Bible wisdom.

Cultural Myths: Not surprisingly, our culture views spending differently than God does.

Things Bring Happiness - the first myth is that things bring happiness. We've all felt the satisfaction of a purchase well-made, or of finally buying something we've saved a long time for. And we've felt the more fleeting pleasure of an impulse buy. But over the long run, things do not bring happiness. What was your favorite purchase last year? Do you feel about it now like you did then?

Possessions Define Us - the house we live in, the cars we drive, the clothes we wear, the schools our children attend - these are the important things, the things that determine whether we're on the right track. Or so culture tells us. But God tells us something different. We're defined not by what we own but rather by WHO owns us. There is no more important identification in life than the identity of belonging to Christ.

The More We Have, The More We Should Spend - as we make more and more money across our careers, our lifestyles should reflect that. Bigger houses, more luxurious cars, more expensive vacations - these are the hallmarks of long-term success. But like the other myths, this one just tends to enslave us. In order to continue expanding our lifestyle, we work longer hours, neglecting our families and the community of God's people. We fall prey to the deceitfulness of wealth.

Biblical Wisdom - The Prudent Spender is one who enjoys the fruits of their labor while guarding against materialism. Prudent spenders exhibit several Biblical characteristics:

GRATITUDE - Prudent spenders recognize God as the source of all they have (James 1:17). They enjoy His provision but don't become arrogant as a result of it (1 Timothy 6:17). Consequently, they're not compelled to spend to impress others or to establish their own position.

CONTENTMENT - Prudent spenders are content with what God has provided. Like Paul, their level of contentment isn't impacted by how much they have (Philippians 4:11-13). Instead, they are content regardless of the circumstances. As a result, they don't need to acquire and spend more in order to enjoy life. Their contentment helps them to guard against greed (Colossians 3:5; Ephesians 5:3; Luke 12:15).

PATIENCE - seeing God as their Provider, and being content with His provision, Prudent Spenders are patient when it comes to purchasing things they want or need. They're not given to rashness or impulse buying; instead, they understand the importance of delayed gratification. They trust God to take care of their needs, rather than taking matters into their own hands like Sarah and Abraham did regarding the promise of a son (Genesis 16).

These character qualities lead prudent spenders to:

- ♥ Disciplined and moderate lifestyles characterized by what is not spent as well as what is
- ♥ Freedom from consumer debt
- ♥ Generosity and wise saving.

Children & Youth Ministry

Quinton Byfield

18, became the highest drafted Black hockey player in NHL history. He was picked No. 2 overall by the Los Angeles Kings, and in addition to the bright future that experts predict for him on the ice, he also wants to get involved in NHL's diversity initiatives to recruit more players like him.

Trude Lamb

16, and her classmates successfully campaigned to change the name of their high school. She was the fastest runner on (formerly) Robert E. Lee High School's cross country team, but she refused to wear a uniform with the Confederate leader's name on it. Her letter to administrators made her the face of the movement to change the school's name, and eventually the School Board complied, renaming it Tyler Legacy High School (the school is located in Tyler, Texas).

Aalayah Eastmond

19, is leading a movement for gun reform that centers on Black lives. As a survivor of the Parkland school shooting, she's founded a non-profit and held events dedicated to gun violence prevention. Her hope is to open the conversation beyond mass shootings to also address the ways that gun violence, police brutality, and poverty impact the safety of Black communities.
